

Agenda

“A Challenge for Horizon 2020: Ageing and Intergenerational Fairness”

Brussels, April 24th 2013

1. Networking Session: 14:00 - 17:30,
Brussels Office of EU Region Trentino, rue de Pascale 45-47

2. European Parliament Session: 18:30 - 20:00,
Room A5E-2, European Parliament

Hosted and Chaired by Kartika Tamara LIOTARD, European Parliament Rapporteur on the European Innovation Partnership on Active and Healthy Ageing

Co-Hosted by Maria da Graça CARVALHO, European Parliament Rapporteur of Horizon 2020

Key participation of Commissioner László Andor - Responsible for Employment, Social affairs and Inclusion, European Commission

Event promoted by What-IF International (WII)

The event is also organized in collaboration with EMIL (European Map for Intergenerational Learning) and ECWT (the European Centre for Women and Technology).

Media partner: EurActiv - Co-organizer: ENEL Foundation

Registration to access the EP and attend the event is mandatory: info on www.whatifinternational.org

Networking Session - 14:00 - 17:30

The networking session is an open space for presentations, posters, sharing of experiences and contacts between stakeholders engaged in the challenge of Ageing and Intergenerational Fairness. The aim is to nurture a community of citizens, academics, policy makers and other stakeholders and to seed with reflections and ideas the following Parliamentary session.

Welcome – 14:15 – 15:00

A Place for Intergenerational Fairness in the Knowledge society

Chair and opening: Anders Flodstrom, Honorary Member of WII, President of KTH, former Vice-Chair of the EIT Governing Board

European Innovation Partnership on Active and Healthy Ageing

Kartika Tamara Liotard, European Parliament Rapporteur on the European Innovation Partnership on Active and Healthy Ageing

Intergenerational Fairness: Opening the Problem and the Solution Space

Matteo Bonifacio and Milena Stoycheva, President and Vice President of WII, Prof. University of Trento-TrentoRISE and CEO Junior Achievement Bulgaria

Introductions to the Posters

Volker Amrhein, Head of Projektbüro "Dialog der Generationen",
Iris Marreel, Responsible for European and International Networking at Projektbüro "Dialog der Generationen"

What-IF International speeches – 15:00 – 16:00

Entrepreneurship and Intergenerational Fairness

Dave Chapman, WII Governing Board Member, Vice-Dean for Enterprise UCL Engineering, Deputy Head of Department, Management Science and Innovation, UCL, UK

Children Education and Intergenerational Fairness

Lesley Anne Hetherington, WII Governing Board Member, Professor in Entrepreneurship at the University of Aberdeen, Scotland

Engagement and Participation and Intergenerational Fairness

Frances Brazier, WII Governing Board Member, Professor "Engineering Systems Foundations", TU-Delft, Netherlands

The Role of Technology and ICT in Fostering Intergenerational Fairness

Marko Turpeinen, WII Governing Board Member, Director, EIT ICT Labs Helsinki, Professor at Royal Institute of Technology, Stockholm

Gender and Generations

Gabriella Campioni, Secretary of WII, retired school teacher, researcher on the symbols of womanhood, voluntary teacher at a free "3-ages University", Italy

Cyber Challenges and Intergenerational Fairness

Marie-Luise Neitz, Program Manager at TU München on Innovative Robotics Technologies, Germany

The Knowledge Triangle, Ageing and Intergenerational Fairness

Giovanni Colombo, WII Governing Board Member, Director of Istituto Superiore Mario Boella and former EIT Governing Board Member, Italy

Healthy Ageing is a Life Long Challenge but the Conception of Health May Differ Between Generations

Menno Kok, PhD, Erasmus University Medical Center Rotterdam and Institute Medical Delta, The Netherlands

Posters session – 16:00 – 17:30

Moving around, getting in touch, sharing experiences and ideas...

Please see the detailed list of posters being presented in the last page of this agenda.

Coffee and refreshments will be available during this session

1. European Parliament Session - 18:30 - 20:00

Introduction – 18:30 – 19:00

Key Messages from the Networking Session

Chair: Anders Flodstrom, Honorary Member of WII, President of KTH, former Vice-Chair of the EIT Governing Board

Welcome note

Kartika Tamara Liotard, Host and Member of the European Parliament, Rapporteur of the European Innovation Platform on Active and Healthy Ageing

Why Intergenerational Fairness

Joao Caraça, Honorary President of WII, Director of the Gulbenkian Foundation, Paris

Key Note Speech

Commissioner László Andor, Responsible for Employment, Social Affairs and Inclusion, European Commission

The different faces of Intergenerational Fairness

Introduction to the panels session: Matteo Bonifacio, Prof. University of Trento-TrentoRISE, Organizer and President of WII

Panel – 19:00 – 19:45 - Moderator: Matteo Bonifacio, Prof. University of Trento-TrentoRISE, President of WII

Societal Changes and Intergenerational Fairness

Andreas Motel-Klingebiel: Deputy Director, German Centre of Gerontology, Germany, and Professor in Ageing and Later Life, National Institute for the Study of Ageing and Later Life, Linköping University, Sweden

The Impact of Science and Technological Development on the Relation between Generations

Andrea Bonaccorsi: Expert in the Evolution and Impact of Scientific and Technological Development (Università di Pisa, Italy)

An Intergenerational Fair Energy Supply and Consumption

Karl-Friedrich Ziegahn: Chief Science Officer, Karlsruhe Institute of Technology (KIT), Chairman KIC InnoEnergy

The Role of Women in the Making of an Intergenerational Fair society

Eva Fabry: Director of the European Centre for Women and Technology (ECWT)

Foresights on the Impacts of Ageing and Policy Actions on Intergenerational Fairness

Vasco Cal: Member of the Advisers of the President of the EC, Jose Manuel Barroso

The Role of Business in Supporting Intergenerational Fairness

Alessandro Costa: Director of the ENEL Foundation

The Role of the Welfare State in an Ageing Society

Agar Brugiavini: Prof. in Social Economics, University Ca Foscari, Venice, Italy

Partnering for Health – Joint Innovation for Better Life and Well-being in Europe

Magdalene Rosenmöller: PhD, MD, MBA, Professor, IESE, Director of CRHIM – Centre for Research in Health Innovation Management, Spain

Reforms and Policies for an Intergenerational Fair Society

Ralf Jacob: Head of Unit 'Social Protection and Activation Systems' of the Employment, Social Affairs and Inclusion DG

Conclusions – 19:45 – 20:00

- Key Address to the EU institutions and Citizens for an Intergenerational Fair Society:
Maria da Graça Carvalho, European Parliament, Rapporteur of Horizon 2020
- Reading and Signing of the Joint Statement addressed to the European Institutions and Citizens:
Kartika Tamara Liotard, European Parliament, Rapporteur of the European Innovation Platform on Active and Healthy Ageing
Matteo Bonifacio, University of Trento-TrentoRISE, President of What-IF International

POSTERS (in alphabetical order)

- The future of work Stuart Anderson, Deputy Head School of Informatics, University of Edinburgh, UK
- Intergenerational fairness in participatory systems Frances Brazier, WII Governing Board Member, Professor "Engineering Systems Foundations", and Caroline Nevejan, Researcher. Delft University of Technology - Participatory Systems Initiative, The Netherlands
- Changing Generations: Findings from New Research on Intergenerational Relations in Ireland Gemma Carney, Research Fellow at Irish Centre for Social Gerontology, National University of Ireland Galway
- Intergenerational Fairness: a cultural issue Elisabeth Franken, Free Consultant, Communauté française de Belgique, Belgium
- Our future. Towards a new sustainable frame of reference for seniors. Welfare and prosperity for all seniors in 2030 Aline Goethals, Foundation for Future Generations, Belgium
- The Intergenerational Foundation, how it works. Ageing and Intergenerational Fairness Antony Mason, Editor at Intergenerational Foundation, UK
- Experiences on active and healthy ageing at the University of Porto Sonia Pereira, R&D Funding Manager at University of Porto, Portugal
- LIKE – Learning through Innovative Management Concepts to Ensure Transfer of Knowledge of Elderly People Dimitrios Raftopoulos, Director of Life Long Learning Research Institute – 3L Research Institute and coordinator of project, Greece
- About Cybervolunteers Yolanda Rueda Fernandez, President of Cybervolunteers Foundation, Spain
- AMaP – Age Management in Practice: Improving Access to VET/CVET for Older Workers across Europe Graham Smith, Project Coordinator, Centre for Lifelong Learning, University of Strathclyde, Scotland
- Recent research on innovation for the big challenges, focusing on ageing population. Redesigning the institutional landscape. Anne Snick. Director of Flora Network of expertise on social innovation, Belgium
- Ambient health monitoring of elderly, first results from 100 households William Stork, Professor at Karlsruhe Institute of Technology, Germany
- Generations and life-phase oriented HRM. How different generations co-operate on the workplace. Miet Timmers, trainer-lecturer at Generatielink and Hoger Instituut voor Gezinswetenschappen University Brussels, Belgium
- World Café "Solidarity between Generations". EMIL: European Map of Intergenerational Learning Elke Tippelmann, Project manager at BAGSO, with Projektbüro "Dialog der Generationen" and EMIL, Germany, and Iris Marreel, Responsible for European and International Networking at Projektbüro "Dialog der Generationen"
- A creative approach to exploring discourses concerning an ageing teaching workforce Nicky Watts, Associate Lecturer Department of Education at Sheffield Hallam University, UK
- Experiences with Learn with Grandma also outside Europe. Valerie Wood-Gaiger, Founder & CEO at Learn with Grandma, UK